BURCH DAHLIA SEED

Dahlia lovers will know from one glance at our list of varieties that this seed will come from the aristocracy of dahliadom. We grow the finest exhibition dahlias that we are able to purchase, and when finer varieties are introduced we shall promptly add them to our seed garden. With few exceptions we are growing the entire Rolls of Honor.

Dahlia seed, $2.00 per 100 (our selection of seed parents); $3.00 per 100 (seed parent named by purchaser). We suggest that our customers name a second or third choice of seed parents in case we should be out of seed from the first requested.

BURCH DAHLIAS FOR 1931 FRIEDA FRANK-Scarlet, lighter at tips, with an orange reverse. It is a semi-cactus and large. It has a good stem and is one of the showiest dahlias ANNA CHARLTON—Rhodamine purple. This is a large decorative on a perfect stem. The best large lavender variety we have ever grown. Roots, $10.00 PEARL MARIE—Amaranth purple. This is an American Cactus on a perfectly straight stem. It produces a profusion of 8 to 9 inch blooms. One of our blue ribbon baskets at the Biltmore was composed entirely of this CAROLYN LEWIS—Gold, with tips of deep crimson. This is a large, shaggy decorative. We used it very effectively in our winning autumn basket at the Biltmore. It produces 11 and 12 inch blooms on a very large and robust plant Roots, $10.00 MARY ALICE—Deep spectrum red with reverse streaked golden showing

FORMER BURCH ORIGINATIONS
ALTA RAY-Salmon-orange decorative. This dahlia was on the Sunkissed Roll of Honor, scored 90 to win a Certificate of Merit, etc. We have never grown a more perfect dahlia in every respect DONNA LOU—Light pink decorative. This dahlia is very prolific, always on a perfect stem, and is hard to beat for a commercial cut flowerRoots, $2.50 FLORENCE FLORY—Maroon is the nearest to black that any color can become without becoming black. Now try to imagine a "black" semi-cactus with a wire stem and all the extra fancy trimmings of a perfect commercial out flower
cut flower
Honor for two consecutive years; commercial and exhibition dahlia; called by C. V. Warren, in editing the bulletin of the Dahlia Society of Southern California, "the best yellow decorative in America." A 10-inch bloom, stemmed like a cornstalk Q. BURCH—Buff pink. A flat decorative, perfectly stemmed. We were proud to give it our own name Roots, $5.00 RUTH TYSON—Orange yellow. This dahlia is the best commercial decorative that we have ever grown. The blooms average 8 to 10 inches, with a stem so rigid that when cut three feet and horizontally held it does not lose its straight line Spectrum red is the red of the rainbow. This tiny three-inch bloom is simply unbeatable for low bowl and flat basket use TOMMY BURCH—This is a bi-color. A decorative white petal edged with a pink stripe about one-eighth of an inch wide
